Individual Capital Gains and Dividend Rates

The individual long-term capital gains rate is generally 15% through 2012. However, the rate can vary from 0% to 28%, depending on the type of property sold, the holding period, the date acquired and the regular tax bracket the taxpayer falls within. The 15% rate (generally 0% for taxpayers in the bottom two tax brackets) also applies to qualified dividends through 2012. Short-term gains (gains on assets held one year or less) and nonqualified dividends are taxed at ordinary income tax rates. See your tax consultant for more information.
